Assessors.

Certificate.

TO THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS of New London County: I hereby certify that I have issued a license to sell spirituous and intoxicating liquors, ale, lager beer, Rhine wine and cider to be sold on the premises of a retail dealer in liquors, and not to be drunk on the premises, in quantities not exceeding one gallon, except other than distilled liquors, and these in quantities not exceeding five gallons, at Shannon Building, Railroad street, Town of Sprague, in said County of New London, this 20th day of October, A. D. 1909.

IDA ROSENTHAL VS. DAVID H. ROSENTHAL. Order of Notice. State of Connecticut, County of New London, Oct. 29, 1909. I, the said Ida Rosenthal, claiming for the reasons therein set forth, a divorce, returnable on the first Tuesday of December, A. D. 1909, before the Superior Court in and for said County.

TEN CENTS A TOOTH.

Greenwich Dentists Agree on Price for Aiding Poor Children.

Greenwich dentists, several of whom are known in their profession throughout the east, and practically all of whom number wealthy summer residents from New York among their patients, have agreed upon a rate. The result is announced thus: "Teeth filled at the rate of ten cents a tooth."

In other words, the United Workers, which is an organization composed of wealthy women have interested the dentists in the work among the poor to the extent that they have formed an association and have offered to care for the poor children's teeth. The work is intended to be done free and ten cents a tooth is charged in order that the children and their parents may feel that they are not the recipients of charity, but are paying in a measure for what they get.

Score of children have been treated so that they may go through life with good teeth instead of having them ruined before they reach the age when they can earn money enough to pay for treatment.

Not Her First Purchase.

This is a baby's story they tell out at Beloit. A woman called at a dry goods store to look at some baby dresses. The clerk showed her a line valued at $5 each, and talked volubly about "how proud" the mother ought to be over the baby. He suggested that possibly she might want a more expensive dress.

But the mother did not seem to "enthusiasm" a bit over the clerk's gush. "How many children have you?" asked the clerk, cautiously. "Oh, this is the eleventh," she replied, carefully scanning the price-tags.

SORE EYES CURED

Eye-Balls and Lids Became Terribly Inflamed—Was Unable to Go About—All Treatments Failed.

CUTICURA PROVED SUCCESSFUL

"About two years ago my eyes got in such a condition that I was unable to go about. They were terribly inflamed, both the balls and lids. I tried home remedies without relief. Then I decided to go to my family physician, but he didn't help them. Then I tried two more of our most prominent physicians, but my eyes grew continually worse. At this time a friend of mine advised me to try Cuticura Ointment, and after using it about one week my eyes were considerably improved and in two weeks they were almost well. They have never given me any trouble since and I am now sixty-five years old. I shall never fail to praise Cuticura."

BROADWAY THEATER.

This Woman and This Man.

At the Broadway theater this evening will be seen This Woman and This Man, which is as sweet and fragrant as an old-fashioned rose garden. The sweet, gentle, loving, self-sacrificing manner of the desolate woman, her scorn for the man who deserted her, are finely portrayed by Minnie Victorson. A quiet dignity, an appreciation of the value of the things in this world that money cannot buy, the exaltation of her love above sordid self, pervade the character of the play, and to one in love with the fine beauties of life the play will make a strong appeal with its pulse of sentiment.

BREED THEATER.

Hudson-Fulton Naval Parade, Feature Motion Picture.

The ever progressive Breed theater has secured for its feature picture this week the Hudson-Fulton naval parade, a picture wondrous in the extent of its scope and variety and as pictorially perfect as any motion picture ever presented at the Breed. The picture opens with the launching of the Clermont, the famous replica of the original Fulton boat. This scene is very perfect, giving one a close view of the interesting boat, also a close view of it on the way under its own steam with the curious paddles. There are also many views of the Half Moon, showing it under sail and from all of the desirable points of view. The parade is shown in all its entirety, including the foreign battleships saluting, the torpedo boats, the police and life saving boats, the last named being shown in saving the occupants of an overturned boat, the big liners, including Lusitania, and all of its excursion steamers, and the final review of the entire fleet while saluting passing steamers. Undoubtedly good dramatic pictures are shown, also a picture of Perry's boat, Roosevelt, at the dock and preparing to sail.

Miss Florence Wolcott, the prima donna of the Breed, scored a big hit with her rendition of the Nightingale by Thelma, a difficult coloratura song by Wilhelm Gause, winning a hearty encore, to which she responded with Liza Lehmann's If I Built a World for You.

HOME GARMENT MAKING.

The Bulletin's Pattern Service.

GIRLS' AND CHILD'S ONE-PIECE DRESS.

Paris Pattern No. 3080—All Seams Allowed.

This smart little dress is remarkably attractive and becoming. Details: stitched down to the waistline are arranged over the shoulders, the released fullness adding to the width of the lower edge. It would develop stylishly in white pique or any of the heavier washable fabrics, as well as chailis and serge.

The pattern is in five sizes—3 to 11 years. For a child of 7 years the dress will require 2 1/2 yards of material 24 inches wide, 3 1/2 yards 27 inches wide, 2 1/2 yards 24 inches wide or 2 1/2 yards 42 inches wide.

Price of pattern, 10 cents. Order through The Bulletin Company, Pattern Dept., Norwich, Conn.

A Buenos Ayres newspaper article, forwarded by Consul-General R. M. Bartleman, states that during the next ten years $50,000,000 gold will be expended in improving the port of Argentina's capital city and on the construction of a canal which will enable vessels of deep draft to go from Buenos Ayres to Rosario at all stages of the tide.

The establishment, on both private and public lands, of reserves for the preservation of birds and animals that are in danger of extinction is commanding much attention in Victoria, Australia, and since October last no fewer than eight new sanctuaries in various parts of the country have been proclaimed by the government.
